

North Star Packaging

Whether you are packing chemicals, food, minerals, resin, sand, soil or any dry flow-able product, we stock or can manufacture a bag to meet your requirements. We can also design custom bulk bags to meet your most demanding food grade or pharmaceutical requirements. We stock one of the nation's largest in-stock inventories of bulk bags with industry experts on hand to walk you through every step of the buying process. That includes identifying the right bag for your new application, or matching a bag that you currently use, to a comparable bulk bag at a better value.

- ✓ One of the Largest Stock Inventories in the US
- ✓ Distribution Warehouses Located Coast-to-Coast
